challenges & opportunities

Health care is an ever-changing industry that requires commitment to maintain optimal patient care delivery. Medical practice staff must be diligent in their efforts to improve productivity while balancing the demands of a busy practice.

As a professional association, Maryland MGMA offers medical practice management staff the opportunity to utilize valuable resources necessary to run an effective practice and to meet any challenge.

- Best practice resources
- One-on-one dialogue with insurance carriers
- Lessons learned from other health care professionals
- Access to key legislative decision-makers
- Statewide Salary Survey
- Opportunity to interact with industry suppliers
- Certification and CEUs through ACMPE, the American College of Medical Practice Executives

development & success

We know that membership is an investment in your professional career and contributes to the overall development and success of the medical practice. Our comprehensive, timely, relevant and valuable educational programs and networking meet these needs.

- Reimbursement Meeting – specific to physician billing and reimbursement issues
- Practice Operations – issues that pertain to the operational and logistical aspects of the medical practice
- Executive Forum - a venue to address strategic planning and senior-level practice issues
- State Conference & Technology Expo – our premiere event of the year which includes educational sessions on personal and practice productivity, technology and product demonstrations

commitment & reward

Maryland MGMA understands and has supported medical practice staff for over 30 years. We remain committed to provide medical practice staff with the necessary tools, resources and education to sustain and enhance the medical practice. Whether you are new to medical practice management or a seasoned veteran, Maryland MGMA provides you with valuable tools and resources required to manage a medical practice regardless of clinical specialty or practice size. Make the commitment...and reap the rewards!

“Membership in Maryland MGMA has provided me with an opportunity to continue to grow, both professionally and personally. The organization supports ongoing development through various educational programs and communications. The ability to network among healthcare colleagues has resulted in productive business relationships and new friendships. Maryland MGMA is truly a valuable enhancement to one’s career.”
